Summary of Incident

Summary of How the Death Occurred: (max. 30,000 characters)

Summary:

On Sunday, March 12 at 5:21 pm, Officer K. T. Levi was on patrol traveling eastbound on Collingsworth in the 2900 block at the northbound Eastex Freeway service road. Officer Levi observed the suspect, later identified as Peter Williams Gaines, standing near a pedestrian signal light. It appeared to Officer Levi that Gaines was damaging a sign that was located on the corner. Officer Levi believed that Gaines was in a mental crisis. Officer Levi took the next street south and made the block and arrived at the north bound service road. Officer Levi preceded north and stopped his shop in the number one lane just south of Collingsworth. Officer Levi informed the dispatcher that he was clear of his previous call and would be out on a suspicious male and requested back-up code 2 due to Gaines' behavior. Officer Levi remained in his shop for a few seconds observing Gaines' odd behavior of ranting to himself and shouting over and over. Gaines at one point knelt to the ground and hit his fists on the concrete. Gaines then stood up and started to walk towards Officer Levi's marked patrol vehicle. Officer Levi could see that Gaines had his fists clinched and the veins in his neck and arms were bulging. Officer Levi believed that Gaines may be under the influence PCP. Officer Levi decided to exit his shop and evaluate Gaines' condition. Officer Levi gave verbal commands to back up and stand by a bundle of clothing on the curb. Officer Levi attempted to verbally communicate with Gaines by asking if he could help him. Gaines did not reply other than the continued ranting say "Fuck this! Fuck life!" over and over.

Gaines took several steps toward Officer Levi with his fists clenched and arms at shoulder level. Officer Levi then closed his shop door and started to back pedal toward the rear of his shop. Gaines continued toward Officer Levi in an aggressive manner. Officer Levi unholstered his CED all the time continuing to give verbal commands for Gaines to get back. Officer Levi retreated around the rear and passenger side of his shop. Officer Levi backed out into the lanes of traffic and at that point deployed the CED for the first time. Officer Levi did not see any effect the CED had on Gaines. Officer Levi was back pedaling toward the curb near the front of his shop when he deployed the CED for the second time. Officer Levi noticed what he thinks was a slight effect the second CED deployment had on Gaines, but it did not stop his advance. Officer Levi dropped his CED to the ground and tried to quickly increase distance between him and Gaines by turning his back toward Gaines and retreating away from him. Officer Levi unholstered his duty weapon and turned toward Gaines and again gave numerous verbal commands to "get back". Gaines continued toward Officer Levi causing him to back pedal into the lanes of traffic. When Gaines advanced to within three feet of Officer Levi he feared for his safety and discharged his duty weapon three times, striking Gaines twice. Officer Levi notified the dispatcher to call an ambulance. Peter Williams Gaines succumbed to his wounds and died at the scene.
